Permission to use Audio Submission

Agreement

1. I am submitting my recorded audio voluntarily and unpaid.
2. I allow my submission to be used in whole or in part perpetually, royalty-free worldwide, and without future compensation or episode removal.
3. I own the copyright to my recorded audio, but Derecho Cat Media, LLC, owns the final content and format of the podcast episode in which my story is placed.
4. Derecho Cat Media has the right to trim, edit for clarity, or alter the submission as needed for placement in podcast episodes, including mini-episodes.

Recording Instructions

1. First, at the beginning of the recording, say "My name is [first and last name] from [city and state]. "I agree to the terms of use and give permission for my audio to be used on The Hissing Feline podcasts." This part of the recording is necessary to give permission to use the cat story, but will not be included with the portion (item 2 below) that will be used on the podcast.
2. Second, record a 60-90-second story about what makes your cat special. Please include the name of the cat (this is only a brief example): "I'm Georgia from Iowa. What makes my cat special is that she gets on my lap, kneads for a couple of minutes, and then falls asleep in my arms like a baby."
3. Email the audio file to: stories@thehissingfeline.com

I will send you an email prior to the podcast episode that contains your story.
